A NEW LOOK FOR FALL

This Fall season will bring to completion a record number of significant improvements and changes in Museum facilities. They have been underway for months and, together, will provide greater convenience and safety as well as new facilities and services. They include:

1. A new entrance on Grove Place convenient to parking facilities and with easy access to galleries, classrooms and Peristyle;
2. The Special Exhibition Galleries, long unfinished, beautifully rehabilitated;
3. A handsome Print Room, the gift of William J. Hitchcock;
4. An attractive Restaurant equipped to serve visitors, students, special groups and staff;
5. The Collector's Corner relocated in the main floor wing adjoining the Special Exhibition Galleries. A project of the Museum Aides, its success has required more space to serve artists and patrons;
6. The Lobby adjoining the Collector's Corner converted into a lounge and gathering place for members of the Museum as well as for our volunteers: Docents, Aides and Friends;
7. An additional Decorative Arts Gallery.

Numerous other projects—some pressing, others long-range—await availability of funds. The need for more classrooms, studios, galleries and offices and even storage space becomes progressively more urgent.

Fortunately, space to meet our needs in the foreseeable future can be provided within the existing building by eliminating the out-of-date auditorium which occupies space from ground to ceiling in the center of the Museum. Plans call for completely redoing this area with two floors and a balcony, but estimated cost cannot be financed out of present means, so work must await new sources of funds.

Ours is a handsome building—one which has endured well—but the central area is now sixty years old and maintenance and replacement of some parts that have become outdated or worn now require increasing outlays.

The "new look" and improvements you will see during these Fall months are made possible by the lively interest of the community and the support of our membership, coupled with a growing number of major contributors ranging from annual gifts by members of the President's Council to those who qualify for classifications as Donors, Patrons or Benefactors.

Opportunities for meeting our facility needs of the future as well as for rounding out and developing our wonderful collections of art can be realized by a continuation of the generous and ever-expanding support of past years. This is how the Toledo Museum can and must measure up to its distinguished heritage.

INCREASED COMMUNITY SERVICES

The Museum's president has outlined on the preceding page future improvements and innovations which will be in operation in the very near future. These improvements continue the development and growth initiated in 1971, the Museum's 70th Anniversary Year. 1971 was one of the most successful in the Museum's long history of community service. Many special events marked the Anniversary Year.

Notable features of this unusual year included three major exhibitions, the visits of ambassadors of three major European countries, a steep rise in attendance over the previous year, the highest number of members in the Museum's history, the largest number of annual contributions to the Museum's Endowment Fund, a new record for membership in the President's Council, and an all-time high in enrollment in adult art classes.

By almost all standards, the Museum's 70th year was a successful year of growth in both community service and community support, as well as in international recognition of the Museum's eminent position as one of America's greatest art museums.

Despite the high level of contributions and able management of Museum Endowment Funds, increased services and general inflation resulted in the highest operating budget in the Museum's history, and the second successive year of deficit.

On balance, however, the Toledo Museum's services were far more extensive and its deficit far less severe than that of almost any other major American art museum. Creative leadership, careful management, and a hard-working staff have given Toledoans a great deal for their dollar. In a year in which several major museums instituted or increased admission fees, reduced programs and open-hours, closed galleries and reported serious deficits, Toledo's Museum has, through carefully controlled costs, offered increased services, an operational expense increase of only 2.7%, and managed to continue to offer free admission to all and free education for children. The Toledo Museum is the only museum in the world to offer such an extensive free art and music education program for children.

The Anniversary Year opened with the significant and beautiful exhibition, The Age of Magnificence: 18th Century Painting in Italy, which opened auspiciously with a President's Council dinner on February 6, 1971 to honor the visit of His Excellency Egidio Ortona, Ambassador of Italy.

Summer saw the formal opening of a newly-arranged gallery of Oriental art, the last in a series of gallery renovations which resulted in moving approximately 60% of the Museum's permanent collections over a period of 18 months. A tea with members of Toledo's Oriental community acting as hostesses in beautiful traditional dress opened the reinstallation of the Museum's own Oriental art collection which will be of increasing public interest in coming years.

The autumn season opened with Milestones of Modern Art, an exhibition of 58 key pictures from Smith College's fine art museum. This exhibition brought the art of a distinguished college museum within the walls of our own Museum.

France's Ambassador, His Excellency Charles Lucet and his party visited Toledo's Museum for an Evening of French Art which included the unveiling of an important acquisition, Antoine Watteau's La Conversation, one of less than ten oil paintings by this rare, French, 18th century painter in American museums. This distinguished diplomat, long a friend of this Museum, wrote "I do not think there is any museum in the United States where French art is as well represented as the one in Toledo."

The year closed with the never-before assembled exhibition of Dutch Art of the 18th century, The Spirit of Holland. This interesting, scholarly and attractive exhibition of 106 paintings and drawings mostly from Dutch museums and collectors was opened by His Excellency Baron Rijnhard B. van Lynden, Ambassador of The Netherlands, whose visit also graced a dinner for the President's Council before the formal Members' Opening of the exhibition.

The past comes alive for everyone at the Museum.

Skilled hands preserve and protect priceless masterpieces for all to enjoy.

The Anniversary Year brought warm response from Toledoans and many others in the wide area surrounding our city which the Museum seeks to serve.

Over 1300 new members joined the Museum in 1971 and brought the total membership at the end of the year to the highest in the Museum's history, 7,163.

The Museum's successful President's Council consisting of those who contribute annually $500 or more reached a new high during the year, resulting in additional capital funds of $339,402.

Attendance reached a total of 433,416, more than the attendance in 1970; and one of the top all-time attendance records.

The Museum is taking positive steps to improve its immediate surroundings and to develop easier and safer access to this great community asset. Our president has outlined earlier these improvements, as well as some additional projects for the future when sufficient funds can be found.

Safe and convenient access to the Museum which The Blade referred to editorially last year as "the greatest single asset this community possesses," sufficient parking, restaurant facilities, are all easily understandable goals which will be beneficial to all who wish to make use of the Museum. However, the Museum must also not lose sight of its very reason for being: its significant, valuable and beautiful works of art, and the educational facilities which enhance the appreciation and understanding of these great masterpieces. They provide inspiration, encouragement, understanding of our heritage, and pleasure to all who wish to observe.

The Toledo Museum of Art continues to be a great institution, not because of any one person, but because of staff members who offer their professional skills, volunteers who contribute their time, members whose contributions help support the art and music education programs for children, generous donors who give much-needed funds and the Trustees who are the stewards of this great Museum. You will find the names of hundreds in this community who support and assist the Museum in the pages which follow. Together, all of us who serve and use this Museum give it meaning and significance.

VOLUNTEERS FOR THE MUSEUM

The Museum is fortunate to have many volunteers who are ready and willing to devote a great deal of time and effort on behalf of the Museum and its many programs.

The Museum has three significant and dedicated volunteer groups:

- Art Museum Aides
- Art Museum Docents
- Art Museum Friends

The Art Museum Aides annually conduct the Museum Membership Campaign to obtain new members for the Museum. In addition, they serve as hostesses at special Museum events, care for the lovely green plants throughout the Museum and are responsible for the Collectors Corner where art by Toledo area artists can be rented or purchased.

The Art Museum Docents, trained by the Museum's professional staff, lecture to thousands of school children and adults each year. Many of the lectures to the children are correlated to the subjects they are currently studying in school.

The Art Museum Friends are Membership Campaign workers who secure five or more new Museum members during any one year. To continue as a Friend, the volunteer secures a minimum of three new Museum members each subsequent year. In addition to being valuable Museum Membership Campaign workers, Friends serve as Museum hostesses for exhibition openings and as members of the new Performing Arts Committee which advises on Museum programming in the performing arts and promotes ticket sales.

These groups of volunteers—so important to the Museum—are listed on the following pages.

MUSEUM MEMBERS

The Toledo Museum of Art had over 7,000 members at the end of last year, the highest year-end number in the history of the Museum.

All membership funds help support the Museum's free educational programs for children. Our Saturday Children's Program was the first of its kind in the world and is internationally recognized for its progressive attitude of bringing children and art together in the Museum's environment.

Members are invited to attend films, lectures, concerts, openings, the Christmas party—all are either free to members or available at a sizeable discount. In addition, members receive a tuition discount on adult art and music classes. Members may rent pictures from the Collectors Corner and use the Museum's Art Reference Library. All members receive the monthly Calendar and the Museum News.

All memberships are family memberships. An Active membership is $15 a year. Many of our members, knowing of our need for additional support, have chosen to be members in higher categories. These categories are:

Contributing Member . . . . .	$ 25
Sustaining Member . . . . .	$ 50
Supporting Member . . . . .	$100
President's Council Member . . .	$500

It is with pride and a great deal of appreciation that we list all members of The Toledo Museum of Art as of July 31, 1972 on the following pages. With their continuing help, the Museum will provide inspiration, pleasure, and a sense of stability to all who care to observe and learn from this great cultural and educational center—The Toledo Museum of Art.

Over 2,000 children register each year for free art and music classes, which membership helps support.

"I've been a Toledo Art Museum member for 45 years, and feel that everyone in Toledo should be proud that we have one of the best museums in the U.S.A. I always encourage and often accompany anyone from outside Toledo who visits me to see our outstanding Museum. And what would I give to have had the wonderful opportunities to develop my ability in art and to learn about the great masters and their works."

"You and the fine people of Toledo are making me a believer in the city of Toledo with each visit. I enjoy myself immensely in Toledo and still cannot completely fathom the beautiful collections you have in your exquisite galleries. It is a pleasure to visit The Toledo Museum of Art, and I look forward to many more trips."
